

2022 Old Plant Benches Refurbished

Recycling the old plant benches began with removing the plastic panels from the two by four frames. The frames were then painted black.

Short, one foot legs were then screwed on to replace the cinderblocks that had formerly supported the benches. These will be placed next to the sidewalk against Beardsley south of the new greenhouse. The larger potted plants will be displayed

