

2022 Prep Work Begins for New Greenhouse

With the old greenhouse removed, the general contractor began the prep work by digging out part of the old footings, filling in a large access hole in the pool building, and finally locating the underground wiring in the area.

Strings were strung to mark the area for the new greenhouse's location.

